

Candidate Profiles

Emily Cornelius

I will leverage my financial leadership experience to strengthen Toronto Humane Society's sustainability and operational efficiency while expanding its impact. My product development background will enhance digital fundraising capabilities and improve the adoption experience through data-driven optimization. I can establish metrics that meaningfully track animal welfare outcomes and organizational health, ensuring resources are allocated to maximum effect. Through my banking and personal network, I'll work to connect Toronto Humane Society with potential corporate partners for sponsorships and employee volunteer programs. Having led cross-functional teams through complex transformations, I can help guide strategic initiatives that balance fiscal responsibility with compassionate animal care. My expertise in identifying process improvements will help Toronto Humane Society serve more animals while maintaining the highest standards of care, creating sustainable growth in both community impact and financial stability.

Julie Barac

I am deeply committed to contributing my skills and expertise to support the mission of Toronto Humane Society as a board member. With a strong focus on strategic decision-making, I intend to actively engage in board discussions, bringing valuable insights to drive the organization's continued success. Drawing upon my past experiences, I will offer a unique perspective to help shape policies and practices that align with the organization's objectives. Furthermore, I am eager to play an active role in fundraising initiatives, utilizing my network and passionately advocating for Toronto Humane Society's cause. Collaborating with fellow board members, my aim is to expand community outreach programs, enhance public awareness, and foster responsible pet ownership. With unwavering dedication and a genuine passion for animal welfare, I am confident in my ability to be a committed member to Toronto Humane Society's esteemed board.

Candidate Profiles

Nabila Tisha

As a seasoned fundraising executive, my career has been dedicated to developing revenue streams for countless non-profits. My decade-long philanthropy experience lends a vantage point in guiding Toronto Humane Society through sustainable and diversified fundraising.

I am a life-long animal advocate, and I am passionate about a future in which animal shelters no longer need to exist. In that endeavour, it would be my honour and privilege to continue applying my skills and experience to help Toronto Humane Society advance in its mission. My commitment remains to facilitate Toronto Humane Society's ongoing evolution into the best-in-class animal organization that continues to change the lives of animals in its care and beyond. *

Rodney Gill

I believe that I am well positioned to assist Toronto Humane Society in fulfilling its mandate by providing thoughtful review and analysis of its governance structure, opportunities, and threats. More specifically, I expect that I can assist in evaluating options available to Toronto Humane Society with respect to its physical footprint, including how best to optimize the value of its real property holdings, now and in the future, with a view to the proper stewardship of those assets.

Vivien Glencross

As a passionate animal lover and advocate, I am committed to supporting Toronto Humane Society's mission in every way I can. I bring strong experience in strategic fundraising, with a focus on building lasting donor relationships and creating plans that deliver results. I believe in the incredible work Toronto Humane Society does to protect and improve the lives of animals, and I am excited about the opportunity to help grow its impact. Having worked closely at a number of nonprofit organizations, I understand the importance of balancing day-to-day needs with long-term goals. I am ready to roll up my sleeves and work with the Board and staff to strengthen fundraising efforts, support new initiatives, and keep Toronto Humane Society's mission front and center. My passion for animal welfare, combined with a practical, hands-on approach to fundraising and planning, would make me a dedicated and enthusiastic member of the Board.

Please note that in the Nabila Tisha's term will be for two (2) years rather than the standard three (3) years because of the maximum number of consecutive years a person can be a director.*
