RRSP or RRIF Beneficiary

Donors can make charitable gifts by naming a charity as a beneficiary of an insurance policy, RRSP or RRIF. The donor does not have to pass these assets through their estates when they gift them to a charity to be eligible to receive the tax receipt in the year of death.

Gift of Life Insurance

Donors can make Toronto Humane Society a beneficiary of an existing policy or take out a new policy and designate Toronto Humane Society as the irrevocable owner and beneficiary.

Invest in a Charitable Gift Annuity

A charitable gift annuity is a financial planning tool that can maintain and even enhance your after-tax income while providing substantial financial aid to Toronto Humane Society. An annuity is very secure, guaranteeing your rate of return and thereby, the amount of your annual payments, for life.

Establish a Charitable Remainder Trust

This gift opportunity allows you to give cash or assets during your lifetime while enjoying the income from that asset for the remainder of your life. Throughout your lifetime you will receive income from this living trust, but upon your death, the remainder will pass directly to Toronto Humane Society as the named beneficiary.
